

Have you ever thought about representing your community as a County Councillor?

Local elections for all 27 seats on Rutland County Council will take place in May 2023 and RCC are keen to encourage more people to stand in these elections to increase the choice and variety of candidates for voters.

Come and find out what it takes to be a County Councillor

Drop-in information session on Wednesday 21 December 2.00pm to 4.00pm at Ketton Library

For more information, or to submit questions about becoming a County Councillor please contact: governance@rutland.gov.uk